

IDIOM FOR CLEAN EXERCISE

Match the following

1. Clean bill of health
2. Clean slate
3. Come clean
4. Wash your hands of it
5. Spick and span

- A. Completely free of blame or responsibility.
- B. Admit to a mistake or wrongdoing.
- C. A thorough examination showing good health.
- D. Perfectly neat and clean.
- E. A chance to start fresh, without past mistakes

Answers:

1. C
2. E
3. B
4. A
5. D

Fill in the Blanks

1. After years of hard work, Maria finally _____ her debt and could breathe a sigh of relief.
2. The teacher told the students to _____ their desks before leaving the classroom.
3. Despite the team's loss, the coach believed there was still time to _____ and win the championship.
4. Feeling _____ after eating the bad fish, Michael rushed to the bathroom.
With a(n) _____ conscience, Sarah knew she had done the right thing.

Answers:

1. paid off
2. tidy up
3. turn things around
4. under the weather
5. clear

Answer the Questions

1. What idiom means you are admitting you did something wrong?
2. If you get a clean bill of health, what does that mean?
3. How can you describe a place that is very neat and organised?
4. Imagine you want a fresh start without the baggage of the past. What idiom describes this?
5. When you don't want to be involved in something anymore, what idiom can you use?

Answers:

1. Come clean
2. It means you are healthy after a checkup.
3. You can say it's spick and span.
4. You would need a clean slate.
5. You can say you want to wash your hands of it.