

UNSEEN POEM FOR CLASS 7 STUDENTS

Unseen Poem for Class 7 Students

Poem 1: "The Garden"

In the heart of the garden, where flowers bloom bright,
Colours of nature dance in the light.
Bees buzz around, and butterflies play,
In this peaceful haven, I wish to stay.
The roses are red, the violets are blue,
Each petal a story, each scent something new.
The sun smiles down, warming the ground,
In this magical place, happiness is found.

Questions:

1. What does the garden symbolise in the poem?
2. What activities do bees and butterflies engage in according to the poem?
3. How does the poet describe the colours of the flowers?

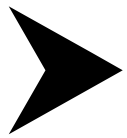

Unseen Poem for Class 7 Students

Poem 1: "The Garden"

In the heart of the garden, where flowers bloom
bright,
Colours of nature dance in the light.
Bees buzz around, and butterflies play,
In this peaceful haven, I wish to stay.
The roses are red, the violets are blue,
Each petal a story, each scent something new.
The sun smiles down, warming the ground,
In this magical place, happiness is found.

Questions:

4. What emotions does the speaker express about being in the garden?
5. What literary devices can be identified in this poem?

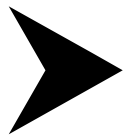

Unseen Poem for Class 7 Students

Poem 1: "The Garden"

In the heart of the garden, where flowers bloom bright,
Colours of nature dance in the light.
Bees buzz around, and butterflies play,
In this peaceful haven, I wish to stay.
The roses are red, the violets are blue,
Each petal a story, each scent something new.
The sun smiles down, warming the ground,
In this magical place, happiness is found.

Answers:

1. The garden symbolises beauty, peace, and happiness.
2. Bees buzz around and butterflies play in the garden.
3. The poet describes the colours as bright and vibrant, dancing in the light.

Unseen Poem for Class 7 Students

Poem 1: "The Garden"

In the heart of the garden, where flowers bloom bright,
Colours of nature dance in the light.
Bees buzz around, and butterflies play,
In this peaceful haven, I wish to stay.
The roses are red, the violets are blue,
Each petal a story, each scent something new.
The sun smiles down, warming the ground,
In this magical place, happiness is found.

Answers:

4. The speaker expresses a desire to stay in the garden due to its peacefulness and happiness.
5. The poem uses imagery (vivid descriptions of flowers and nature), personification (the sun smiles), and rhyme (the end words of lines rhyme).