

APPOSITIVE PHRASE WORKSHEET

Exercise 1: Rewrite the Sentence by Adding an Appositive

Add an appositive phrase to the sentence to make it more interesting.

1. The book was lying on the table
2. We visited Paris during the summer.
3. My friend is coming over for dinner.
4. The sun was shining brightly.
5. I watched a movie last night.
6. I saw a tiger at the zoo.

Answers:

1. The book, a mystery novel by Agatha Christie, was lying on the table.
2. We visited Paris, the capital city of France, during the summer.
3. My friend, an amazing cook, is coming over for dinner.
4. The sun, a glowing ball of fire, was shining brightly.
5. I watched a movie, a thrilling action film, last night.
6. I saw a tiger, a fierce jungle predator, at the zoo.

APPOSITIVE PHRASE WORKSHEET

Exercise 2: Combine the Sentences Using an Appositive

Combine the two sentences by turning the second one into an appositive phrase.

1. My dog is very friendly. His name is Bruno.
2. Mr. Thomas teaches us science. He is our class teacher.
3. We visited the Taj Mahal. It is a famous monument in India.
4. Lucy won the singing contest. She is my cousin.
5. Neil Armstrong walked on the moon. He was an American astronaut.

Answers:

1. My dog, Bruno, is very friendly.
2. Mr. Thomas, our class teacher, teaches us science.
3. We visited the Taj Mahal, a famous monument in India.
4. Lucy, my cousin, won the singing contest.
5. Neil Armstrong, an American astronaut, walked on the moon.